IN TRANSLATION: LITERATURE OF THE ARAB WORLD

The Fletcher Free Library has embarked on a 9-month journey through the Arab world, travelling via literature, language and the arts. See the terrific preview in Seven Days!

Each month, guides and scholars explore a country in North Africa and the Middle East-- a vast area rich in ancient and contemporary culture. Our first stop is Jordan.

Through book discussions, arts programs, language classes and culinary experiences, you will find yourself traversing captivating terrain. No passport needed!

MOVIE: Theeb

Tuesday, October 23, 6:15-8 pm British-Jordanian Director, Naji Abu Nowar's 2014 film set in the Ottoman province of Hijaz during World War I.

ARABIC LANGUAGE CLASSES

(Starting in November): Nov, 6 - Dec 11, 6-7:30 pm Instructor Mona Tolba teaches this six week basic Arabic-language course. By the end of this course, you will learn the Arabic alphabet, how to introduce yourself, ask about the weather and time and carry short conversations in Arabic.
